Was Governor Haslam really upset at Illegal children dumped off in the middle of the night? Or could it have been planned like everyone else?

With the recent orchestrated “escorted” influx of illegal children from South America where is America headed? Do we stand up for “OUR” children’s future or do we fall for Saul Alinsky’s 4th Rule?

With reports nationwide of many diseases including lice scabies and TB this raises concerns for children when they return back to school.

Federal and Soros funded CCHD to launder money into state contractors for distribution of illegal children in Tennessee.

Tennessee constitution prevents “Monopolies” from operating if enforced:

§ 22. Perpetuities and monopolies That perpetuities and monopolies are contrary to the genius of a free State, and shall not be allowed.

Refugee Resettlement Watch Report:

Refugee resettlement contractors say don't give their money to the children. They want the money for their businesses! These contractors are paid to bring refugees to Tennessee.

This year Congress increased funding for refugee resettlement contractor business to $1.489 billion, an increase from last year's $1.12 billion but still short the additional $1.6 billion that refugee contractors demanded.

Federal refugee contractors like the TN Office for Refugees (TOR) operating in Tennessee, are complaining that the U.S. Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR) may use some of the contractors' money to help the children crossing the border. TOR says that if their money is reduced they won't be able to help the refugees they have brought to Tennessee. To date, there has been no suggestion by TOR that they would reduce the number of people they plan to bring to the State.

The federal contractors have been directed by their leadership to lobby Congress for more money, which in part is why Pres. Obama's original request of $2 billion in emergency spending for the border is now $3.7 billion. If Congress approves this request, the illegals will get to stay and TOR will get all its money. Why shouldn't the contractors get to save their cake and eat it too? Report here:

The CCHD and Saul Alinsky

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) is a Washington, D.C.-based, anti-poverty foundation, founded by the Catholic bishops of the United States in 1969. Replenished annually by a November collection in Catholic parishes, the $15 million foundation gives grants to a wide-range community organizing groups, including those associated with Industrial Areas Foundation, ACORN and other community organizing networks, as well as independent organizing efforts. In addition, CCHD funds worker and community owned development projects.

Generally, these efforts are not affiliated with the Catholic Church. CCHD is one of the largest, if not the single largest, funders of Alinsky-tradition community organizing in the United States. Its origins are in the Catholic Committee for Urban Ministry (CCUM), a 1960s group that brought together clergy, women religious and lay leaders working in our nation's cities for racial and economic justice

CCHD and how the Catholic Church was infiltrated by Alinsky followers. This video by Michael Voris of RealCatholicTV titled “The CCHD and Saul Alinsky” explains a lot. It explains how the Church was infiltrated by Alinsky followers and why Chicago is a source of so much heterodoxy. There’s even a tie in with Father Frank Pavone’s situation. You see Bishop Zurek’s mentor, Bishop John McCarthy of Austin, was one of the founders of CCHD. (See the article below that mentions Fr. John McCarthy as an assistant to Msgr. George Higgins – a rather famous labor activist at the time. Sure, it’s OK for Catholic priests to be pro-labor activists, but not pro-Life activists.)

Alinsky’s “community organizers” are nothing but a front for his socialist agenda. CCHD was founded specifically to funnel Catholic Church funds into the network of “community organizations” founded by Alinsky.

Note also that the “community organizer” Barack Obama got his start in Chicago working with some of Alinsky’s disciples and reportedly received funds from CCHD.

He was RECRUITED by Marty Kaufman, which is a pseudonym for Jerry Kellman. Obama writes about him at length throughout the memoir's 160-page section on his experience organizing in Chicago. Kellman has a signed copy. It reads "To Jerry, a friend and a mentor. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' "Campaign for Human Development" paid a young Barack Obama's airfare to a training program on community organizing given by the Industrial Areas Foundation, an organization founded by leftist radical Saul Alinsky, according a book, No Higher Power, written by conservative activist Phyllis Schlafly and journalist George Neumayr, which reports that "In the 1980s, the Catholic archdiocese of Chicago contributed to the training of Obama in the very Alinskyite radicalism that would culminate in such anti-religious measures as the HHS mandate," according to an article on the book published by the Blaze.

Saul Alinsky Goes to Church... Hillary and Alinsky met at a Methodist Church picnic in Chicago.

The origins of community organizing are generally traced to the pioneering work of Saul Alinsky, who built the first community organizing effort in Chicago's Back of the Yards neighborhood in the 1930s. Alinsky created the early community-based efforts by organizing existing groups into collective action around particular issues. Investigation is limited to scope of IAF Industrial Area Foundation. Same Marxist style training is Gamaliel Foundation which Obama worked and trained.

II. Reasons for selecting the Industrial Areas Foundation for this Commentary:

1. The IAF receives the largest percentage of CHD grants of any CHD grantee. During the funding period of 1992-1997, CHD has awarded significant grants to the IAF. The IAF has received approximately 15% of the national CHD annual budget between 1992-1997.<sup>1</sup> This represents approximately $6,466,500 during this funding period.

2. The CHD is historically related to the IAF. The consistently high proportion of CHD grants to the IAF is in itself a reason to study IAF activities. The IAF's historical relationship to the CHD is another: "There was no formal link between the Campaign for Human Development and the Industrial Areas Foundation [at the CHD's inception]; but the philosophy behind the newly established CHD had been influenced by key Catholic leaders who in turn had been influenced by Alinsky and the IAF. In fact, funding from the CHD over the years has often gone to broad based community organizations established with the support of the IAF.<sup>2</sup> During his visit to Britain in 1990, Rev. Al LoPinto, then director of the Campaign for Human Development, explained that the Campaign had no formal commitment to the IAF and broad based community organizing; however, they found the approach to be effective and the IAF organizers to be very professional.”<sup>3</sup>

III. Founding of the Industrial Areas Foundation:

1. The IAF was founded by organizer Saul Alinsky.<sup>4</sup> Saul Alinsky wrote two books outlining his organizational principles and strategies: Reveille for Radicals (1946) and Rules for Radicals (1971).<sup>5</sup>

While America was initially created as "Free Market," the slow infiltration of private banks and enthroned corporations has put us in the position that we now find ourselves in: a command economic system. In a command economic system or planned economy, the government controls the economy. The state decides how to use and distribute resources. The government regulates prices and wages; it may even determine what sorts of work individuals do. Background and history of money changers and usury.

King Solomon made alliances with King of Tyre. The Prince of Tyre was human but he was rebuked by God in Ezekiel 28, while the King of Tyre was actually was Satan, pulling the string in the earthly realm. This can be understood using Gen. Clausewitz "Paradoxical Trinity".

Commercial Enterprises: Trade with other nations was another of Solomon's contributions to the nation of Israel. The international situation was favorable for a strong leader to emerge in Palestine; traditional centers of strength in Egypt and Syria were at an all-time low. Solomon entered into trade agreements with a number of nations, increasing Israel's wealth and prestige.

Although Solomon had a strong army, he relied upon a system of treaties with his neighbors to keep the peace. Egypt was allied with Israel through the marriage of Solomon to the daughter of the Pharaoh. The sea-faring cities of Tyre and Sidon were also united to Israel by trade agreements.

Some of Israel's trade was conducted overland by way of camel caravans. But the most significant trade was by sea across the Mediterranean Sea through an alliance with Tyre. Solomon's ships apparently went as far west as Spain to bring back silver. Archaeologists have discovered an old mine in ancient Ethiopia that is believed to have been one of Solomon's sources of silver.

Soon Solomon became the ruler of a huge commercial empire. Archaeologists believe that Solomon's trading may have brought him into conflict with the Queen of Sheba. One purpose of her famous visit to Solomon may have been to establish trade agreements between Solomon's kingdom and her own nation (I Kings 10:1-13).

Half a million flee' The International Organization for Migration said Wednesday that around half a million Iraqis had fled their homes in Mosul following the city's fall, fearing increased violence.

The Geneva-based organization said its sources on the ground estimated the violence leading up to ISIL's total takeover "displaced over 500,000 people in and around the city."

The violence in Mosul "has resulted in a high number of casualties among civilians," the IOM added.

Known for its ruthless tactics and suicide bombers, ISIL is arguably the most capable force fighting President Bashar Assad inside Syria as well as the most powerful militant group in Iraq.

The takeover of Mosul prompted the United States to voice deep concern about the "extremely serious" situation and warn that ISIL poses "a threat to the entire region."

UN chief Ban Ki-moon's spokesman said he was "gravely concerned by the serious deteriorating of the security situation in Mosul."

Wahhabism...from “Surrendering Islam”

“These Masonic leaders seemed, then, to have embarked on a plan to subvert Islam from within, and to distort the Islamic world and render it predisposed to a confrontation with the West. Key to this strategy was the creation of the Salafi movement, which was an outgrowth of the emergence of the Egyptian Freemasonry of Cagliostro, which today is closely aligned to the Wahhabis of Saudi Arabia.

According to their devious strategy of “divide and conquer”, the British deliberately created the Wahhabi movement in order to upset the Ottoman Empire. At the height of its power, between the sixteenth and seventh century, the Ottoman Empire spanned three continents, controlling much of Southeastern Europe, the Middle East and North Africa. It stretched from the Strait of Gibraltar in the west to the Caspian Sea and Persian Gulf in the east, and from the edge of Austria, Hungary and parts of Ukraine in the north to Sudan, Eritrea, Somalia and Yemen in the south.

However, at the same time, the British were beginning to encroach upon former Muslim territories, in particular, making significant inroads into India. Nevertheless, they continued to have designs on the various parts of the Ottoman Empire, and worked to aid in its collapse by fomenting rebellion from within. The brunt of their strategy was focused on the creation of the Wahhabi sect of Saudi Arabia.”<http://surrenderingislam.com/surrendering-islam/wahhabism>

Those ignorant of History are destined to repeat it

Is there a pattern in history? Thomas Jefferson stated: "History by apprising them of the past will enable them to judge of the future". Revisionists have flooded internet with disinformation on study "The Relative Influence of European Writers on Late Eighteen-Century American Political Thought" conducted in 1984 by political scientists Donald Lutz and Charles Hyneman. Their study was published 1984 in "The American Political Science Review p. 84. The 10 year study concluded at least 34% of Founding Era quotes came directly from bible.

- How would Thomas Jefferson's quote parallel with Ecclesiastes 3:15 What is happening now has happened before, and what will happen in the future has happened before, because God makes the same things happen over and over again or Ecclesiastes 1:9: History merely repeats itself. It has all been done before. Nothing under the sun is truly new. History by apprising them [students] of the past will enable them to judge of the future; it will avail them of the experience of other times and other nations; it will qualify them as judges of the actions and designs of men; it will enable them to know ambition under every disguise it may assume; and knowing it, to defeat its views.
