How does failure to enforce immigration laws affect “National Security?” With immigration crisis a HOT political topic and the Hamas-Israeli situation in Gaza, let’s look at Hamas and Muslim Brotherhood leader Moussa Abu Marzouk. Is Marzook’s Hamas networks still in U.S.? Are they connected to at least 35 known Islamaburg jihad training camps? ## Mousa Abu Marzook

a.k.a. Dr. Musa Abu-Marzuq; Sa'id Abu-Marzuq; Abu-'Umar; Mousa Mohamed Abou Marzook; Musa Abu Marzouk; Musa Abu Marzuk

Mousa Abu Marzook currently holds the title of Deputy Political Bureau Chief of HAMAS, operating out of Cairo, Egypt.

Born in 1951 in Rafah in the Gaza Strip, Marzook went to Cairo to study engineering and received a degree from Ein Shams University in 1977. Marzook moved to the United States to pursue a Ph.D. in engineering. After leaving the United States in 1992, he moved to Jordan where he lived until being expelled in 1995. While living in Jordan, Marzook is suspected of having played a significant role in planning and coordinating numerous terrorist attacks within Israel. On July 25, 1995 after his expulsion from Jordan, Marzook was arrested at John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York, where he was detained by authorities until being returned to Jordan in 1997. Following a nationwide crackdown on HAMAS activities within the country, he was once again deported by Jordanian authorities in 1999.

Marzook left a significant legacy in the United States. During his tenure in the US, he created an extensive network to support HAMAS' terrorist activities. In addition to serving on the board of directors of the Islamic Association for Palestine, which courts have found "desired to help HAMAS activities succeed" and acted on that desire, he also founded a think-tank called the United Association for Studies and Research (UASR). Marzook also provided the Holy Land Foundation (HLF), with $210,000 in initial funding; and channeled $250,000 in investment capital to Infocom, a Texas-computer business run by relatives of Marzook's wife.

The case of Dr. Mousa Mohammad Abu Marzook, a 46-year-old husband, father of six, legal resident of the state of Virginia and Hamas party political leader, who has been held in a seven-by-eight-foot cell in the Metropolitan Correction Center in New York City since July 25, 1995, but who has yet to be charged with a crime or even granted a personal hearing in a U.S. court, may go down in history as an equally colossal failure of American justice.

However, Fox was not permitted to pursue this line of inquiry. He later confided to terrorism expert Laurie Mylroie that Janet Reno’s Justice Department pressured him to ignore any possible involvement by foreign governments. Reno’s people “did not want state sponsorship addressed,” Fox explained. They simply wanted to arrest and jail the terrorists as common criminals”, page 7 from “The Shadow Party” by David Horowitz and Richard Poe*

June 10, 2014 Marzouk recently moved from Cairo and position with Muslim Brotherhood to Gaza with Hamas.

Hamas Second-in-Command Moving From Egypt to Gaza

Abu Marzouk was born in Gaza’s Rafah refugee camp, but left the territory in 1968 and spent most of his life in exile. In the 1990s, he served as the top Hamas leader, but was then replaced by the current No. 1, Khaled Mashaal.

Abu Marzouk has been based in the Egyptian capital of Cairo since top Hamas leaders in exile left their long-time headquarters in Syria in 2011, a few months after the start of the civil war there, and found refuge in different Middle Eastern capitals.

Islamic militant group Hamas' No. 2 leader said in an interview Tuesday that he hopes to move from his base in Egypt to his native Gaza Strip following the formation of a Palestinian unity government.

Moussa Abu Marzouk also told The Associated Press that reconciliation efforts between his movement and Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas would continue despite a new flare-up of tensions between the long-time rivals.

In Gaza, Hamas forced banks to remain closed for the past week because of a dispute with Abbas over salaries for its loyalists. More than 40,000 employees worked for the Hamas government in Gaza, and it's not clear if they will retain their jobs or who will pay them in the meantime.

Abu Marzouk said Qatar promised help and that the head of the Palestinian unity government, Rami Hamdallah, has been invited for talks to the Gulf state. "There should be an urgent payment to resolve the problem of the salaries," he said. By Associated Press | June 10, 2014

Abu Marrzouk stated in article above Qatar had promised help. Is there a history of Saudi funding? Most notably, In 1999, CAIR received $250,000 from a Saudi-based bank headed by the former Director of the Muslim World League (MWL). Osama bin Laden identified MWL as a primary source of funds for Al Qaeda. Federal investigators raided MWL's U.S. offices. ## Are Hamas and the Muslim Brotherhood one and the same?

By the outbreak of the First Intifada, the Muslim Brotherhood in the United States was significant and well organized. In 1987, the governing body of the International Muslim Brotherhood decided to focus its mission on the Palestinian issue, and directed that Palestine Committees be formed in countries throughout the world. In the United States, the Palestine Committee was comprised of active Muslim Brotherhood members of Palestinian origin. The leader of the Palestinian Committee in the United States at that time was unindicted co-conspirator Mousa Abu Marzook. Marzook is now – and has been since 1995 – a Specially Designated Terrorist and Hamas leader. In fact, in the early 1990s, Marzook left his post as a leader of the United States-based Muslim Brotherhood and Palestinian Committee to take over as Hamas' Political Bureau Chief, the organization's highest official position. The creation and growth of the Palestine Committee in the United States are evidenced in part by documents that the government seized in 2004 from the Virginia home of unindicted co-conspirator and Palestinian Committee member Ismail Elbarasse. As shown by those documents and other evidence, the Muslim Brotherhood directed its Palestinian Committees throughout the world, including the United States, to carry out the mandate of assisting Sheik Yassin and his newly-formed Hamas Movement. In accordance with that mandate, the Palestinian Committee in the United States, which included the defendants Elashi, Baker and El-Mezain, oversaw a number of sub- organizations charged with varying missions calculated to comprehensively address Hamas' needs. These organizations included the United Association for Studies and Research (UASR) (“think tank”), the Islamic Association of Palestine (IAP) (propaganda and information) and the Occupied Land Fund (OLF) (money), later to become the defendant HLF. The defendant Shukri Abu Baker was in charge of the HLF and, along with the defendants El-Mezain and Elashi, set out to establish what would become the highest grossing Islamic charity in the United States.

The Hegelian Dialectic is the framework for guiding our thoughts and actions into conflicts that lead us to a predetermined solution. When we remain locked into dialectical thinking, we cannot see out of the box. so we must step outside the dialectic to be released from the limitations of controlled and guided thought. Dialogue is the primary tool of the dialectic, and terror and intimidation are also acceptable formats for obtaining the goal. Today the dialectic is active in every political issue that encourages taking sides. We can see it in environmentalists instigating conflicts against private property owners, in democrats against republicans, in greens against libertarians, in communists against socialists, in neo-cons against traditional conservatives, in community activists against individuals, in pro-choice versus pro-life, in Christians against Muslims, in isolationists versus interventionists, in peace activists against war hawks. No matter what the issue, the invisible dialectic aims to control both the conflict and the resolution of differences, and leads everyone involved into a new cycle of conflicts.

Erdogan's plot almost worked! In the aftermath of the sarin attack, Pres. Obama began planning a massive US strike on dozens of Syrian targets, even though British intelligence had informed the US joint chiefs of staff that samples of the sarin gas obtained from the site of the attack did not match the chemical weapons in Syria's possession. A former US intelligence official told Herhsh that “Erdogan was known to be supporting the al-Nusra Front, a jihadist faction among the rebel opposition, as well as other Islamist rebel groups.” Hirsh revealed that the US Defense Intelligence Agency had issued “a highly classified” document on June 20, 2013, confirming that “Turkey and Saudi-based chemical facilitators were attempting to obtain sarin precursors in bulk, tens of kilograms, likely for the anticipated large scale production effort in Syria.” After a special UN mission went to Syria to investigate two earlier chemical attacks in Spring 2013, a person with close knowledge of UN's activity told Herhsh that “there was evidence linking the Syrian opposition to the first gas attack, on March 19 in Khan al-Assal, a village near Aleppo.... ## RIGHTS UNALIENABLE—BECAUSE GOD-GIVEN

Is it not evident Gen. Clauswitz reversed Founding Father's "Paradoxical Trinity" [In The Name of The Holy Undivided Trinity] to incite Revolution rather than Liberty and Freedom? If Gen. Clausewitz theory is based on primordial violence, hatred, and enmity is this opposite of harmony and tranquility?

The definition of a CoG is "the source of power that provides moral or physical strength, freedom of action, or will to act."<sup>[2]</sup> Thus, the center of gravity is usually seen as the "source of strength". DoD Dictionary of Military and Associated Terms. Joint Publication 1-02. 2008.

Of the 27 Grievances listed in Declaration of Independence Taxes was #17. Most listed grievance was "Overreach of Power". Paragraph written by Thomas Jefferson but voted out. ## ENDOWED BY THE CREATOR

"It is the duty of every man to render to the Creator such homage and such only as he believes to be acceptable to him. This duty is precedent, both in order of time and in degree of obligation, to the claims of Civil Society". James Madison: Memorial and Remonstrance Against Religious Assessments, Circa June 20, 1785

James Madison Father of Bill of Rights

"God who gave us life gave us liberty. And can the liberties of a nation be thought secure when we have removed their only firm basis a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties ARE the gift of God? That they are not to be violated but with his wrath! Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that his justice cannot sleep forever. That a revolution of the wheel of fortune, a change of situation is among possible events, that it may be possible by supernatural influence". James Madison The Almighty has no attribute which can take side with us in that event!! Notes on the State of Virginia Query XVIII, p. 237

"Because we hold it for a fundamental and undeniable truth, "that religion or the duty which we owe to our Creator and the manner of discharging it, can be directed only by reason and conviction, not by force or violence." The Religion then of every man must be left to the conviction and conscience of every man; and it is the right of every man to exercise it as these may dictate. This right is in its nature an unalienable right. It is unalienable, because the opinions of men, depending only on the evidence contemplated by their own minds cannot follow the dictates of other men: It is unalienable also, because what is here a right towards men, is a duty towards the Creator. It is the duty of every man to render to the Creator such homage and such only as he believes to be acceptable to him. This duty is precedent, both in order of time and in degree of obligation, to the claims of Civil Society. Before any man can be considered as a member of Civil Society, he must be considered as a subject of the Governour of the Universe: And if a member of Civil Society, do it with a saving of his allegiance to the Universal Sovereign. We maintain therefore that in matters of Religion, no man's right is abridged by the institution of Civil Society and that Religion is wholly exempt from its cognizance. True it is, that no other rule exists, by which any question which may divide a Society, can be ultimately determined, but the will of the majority; but it is also true that the majority may trespass on the rights of the minority." – James Madison Memorial and Remonstrance Against Religious Assessments, 1785

"It is impossible for the man of pious reflection not to perceive in it [the Constitution] a finger of that Almighty hand which has been so frequently and signally extended to our relief in the critical stages of the revolution." – James Madison Federalist Papers, No. 37, January 11, 1788

"Besides the advantage of being armed, which the Americans possess over the people of almost every other nation, the existence of subordinate governments, to which the people are attached and by which the militia officers are appointed, forms a barrier against the enterprises of ambition, more insurmountable than any which a simple government of any form can admit of." – James Madison Federalist Papers, No. 48, February 1, 1788

"Religious bondage shackles and debilitates the mind and unfits it for every noble enterprize, every expanded prospect." – Letter to William Bradford, April 1, 1774

"The eyes of the world being thus on our Country, it is put the more on its good behavior, and under the greater obligation also, to do justice to the Tree of Liberty by an exhibition of the fine fruits we gather from it." – Letter to James Monroe, December 16, 1824

Many revisionists have stated all the Founding Father's were deists. How can that be logical when in Declaration of Independence they appealed to "Supreme Judge of The World"? Benjamin Franklin stated in his speech on Constitutional Floor call to prayer

“...In this situation of this Assembly groping as it were in the dark to find political truth, and scarce able to distinguish it when to us, how has it happened, Sir, that we have not hitherto once thought of humbly applying to the Father of lights to illuminate our understandings? In the beginning of the contest with G. Britain, when we were sensible of danger we had daily prayer in this room for the Divine Protection. – Our prayers, Sir, were heard, and they were graciously answered. All of us who were engaged in the struggle must have observed frequent instances of a Superintending providence in our favor. To that kind providence we owe this happy opportunity of consulting in peace on the means of establishing our future national felicity. And have we now forgotten that powerful friend? or do we imagine that we no longer need His assistance.

I have lived, Sir, a long time and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth – that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the sacred writings that “except the Lord build they labor in vain that build it.” I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better than the Builders of Babel....”

America was unique in the way it was created with the bible and it's law book. The "Holy Experiment" could be summed up our Founders took biblical laws and wrote them into judicial laws. After debating and view accounts of history no society survived “moral decay”. To prevent the tyranny like in Europe the Founders convinced an armed “Republic” was only way to prevent history from repeating itself. A moral self-governing society armed to both protect their families, property and their liberties from foreign invaders.
